Recognising unconscious bias

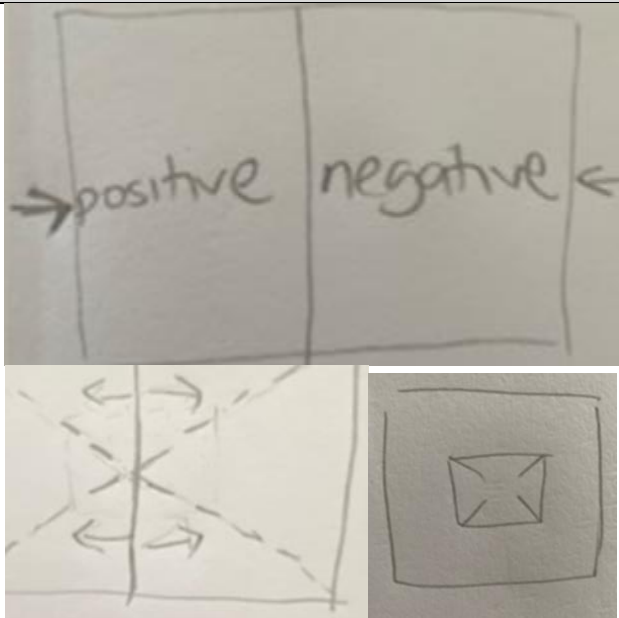

Animation

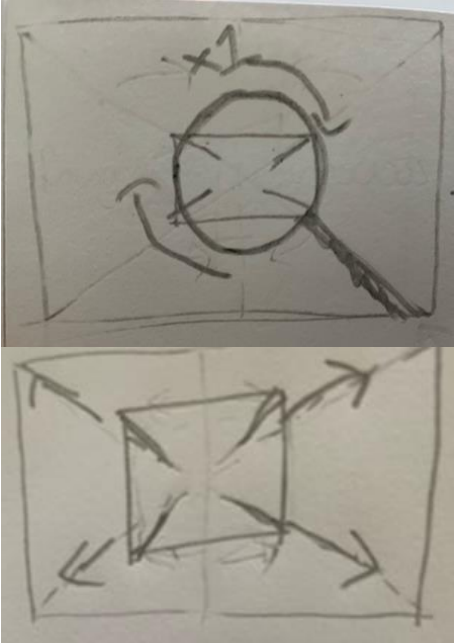

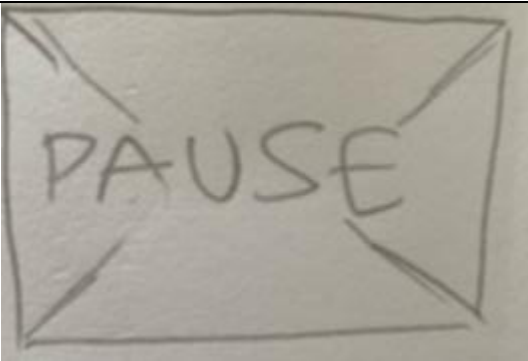

Animation

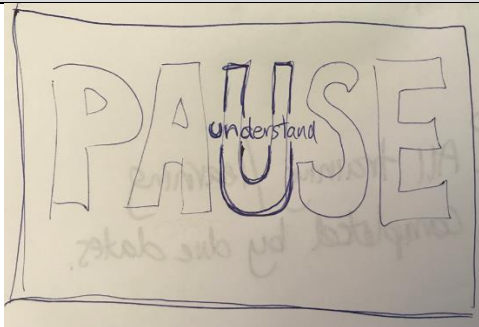

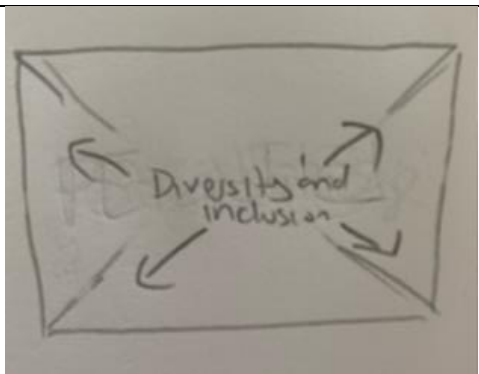

Total time: 1 minute 10 seconds

	Script	Description of animation
	Everyone has unconscious bias.	Use icon as the background 'Recognising unconscious bias' text appears on screen in the centre of the icon background. The text fades out - transition
	It is quick judgments we make without realising it.	A 'scale' icon will appear in the centre
	These are influenced by our background, cultural environments and personal experiences.	Corner lines in the icon will change colours one at a time Scale icon fades as the corner lines stretch to meet in the middle - transition

	Script	Description of animation
 	These judgments can be positive and allow us to sense danger like avoiding fast moving cars.	The 'x' created by the joined corner lines closes inwards to create a single line down the centre of the orange screen. The word 'positive' slides in from the left to sit in the left panel and remain.

	Script	Description of animation
	Or can be negative and make a person feel isolated, unsafe or undervalued.	The word 'negative' slides in from the right to sit in the right panel. The single centre line opens into an 'x' wiping the words negative and positive. The 'x' the splits off to form the icon which is now in the centre of the screen (no longer the background'. – transition

	Script	Description of animation
	By recognising what they are you can increase your awareness of them and change how you react to certain situations.	Magnifying glass to slide in from the bottom left screen then floats over the icon in a circular motion before coming to a stop over the icon. Magnifying glass fades out and the icon grows to become the background again - transition
	The PAUSE method is designed to help you manage your own bias.	PAUSE text appears on screen in the centre of icon background and remains.

	Script	Description of animation
	Pay attention to your underlying feelings	Highlight each letter and have the text appear in the centre of that letter then fade when the next letter is highlighted. i.e P highlights and the words Pay attention; A highlights Acknowledge U highlights Understand S highlights Search E highlights Execute. Words on screen fade out with the background icon remaining – transition
	Acknowledge your reactions and judgements
	Understand other possible reactions
	Search for other ways to handle situations
	Execute your actions.
	A culture of inclusion and diversity in the workplace is so important, as these are the behaviours that welcome and embrace diversity.	Words 'Diversity and Inclusion' grow from the centre of the screen stopping once they are in the middle of the icon background. The remain on screen
	Unconscious bias squashes diverse perspectives and can make employees feel uncomfortable discussing diversity and inclusion.	Word 'Unconscious bias' drops in from the top squashing the words 'Diversity and Inclusion' flat. Word unconscious bias drops off the screen and screen zoom out to reveal the icon in the centre – transition
